'Dead' man walks into police H.Q.

The man reported to have been found dead on Somerton beach yesterday is very much alive. He walked into police headquarters today to let officials know.

He is Mr. E. C. Johnson, who is staying at the People's Palace, Pirie street, City. His address had been given as Arthur street, Payneham.

Earlier today police were told that the man was not Johnson.

Identity of the man, whose body was found on Somerton beach opposite the Crippled Children's Home, is still unknown.

Manufacturers' name tags had been removed from the man's clothing, which contained no clue to his identity.

A post-mortem examination was conducted today to find cause of death.
